

MUTT AND JEFF

Mutt's Presidential Boom Is Launched

By BUD FISHER

(Copyright, 1932, by H. C. Fisher, Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)
Great Britain Rights Reserved

Three Sections
14 Pages
This Issue

5c PER COPY

WATER RATES TY PERCENT

States Water Company
ince Rates Were Ago

in Torrance water rates road Commission in the of Torrance against the tes charged by the Torpany, according to City ty council at its meeting e the complaint demanda ta to be included in the e formal application for lroad Commission within sterday.

ablished by the Railroad e the water company had irrigation customers and time, the annual income imately $32,273.

water company has ap- sence 1925 its operating 000 annually and in some $95,000 annual income, ere established in 1922, 8 per cent profit on an storical cost of the plant 00, the complaint claims.

CHURCHES TO MEET BRIGHT EASTER MORN

ee Communities Combine In Annual Service In Palos Verdes Hills

ans for Easter sunrise services e Palos Verdes, foothills south omita, are being carefully pre- d by the various organiza- ns, which will take part.

5:30 a. m. on Sunday, March thousands of worshippers will er at the foot of Narbonne e, guided there by local s of Boy Scouts, who will t traffic.

erance churches which are ng in the services are e Baptist church, Central gelical, First Methodist and tian church, The Harbor City odist church, the Community ysterian, Calvary Evangelical the Berachah churches of Lo- are active in promoting the vance which is one of the al affairs of the community. v. Thomas Grice, pastor of the odist church of Long Beach, been invited to deliver the sage. Special music will be lled by the Calvary church

TURN TO STORY 2
Page 6

One Week Left

ly one week left to register e May 3 primaries.

orance residents who expect to a ballot in this important tion who have not already e their statements to the reg- ar should do so at once. Mrs. rs. Anderson is at her post in entrance of the Masonic tem- building every day to receive tations. She will call at your e or place of business, if it is possible or convenient for you ee her at the downtown loca- t.

She may be found in the ing at her home, 1510 Engracia ue. Her telephone is 330-W. rs. Anderson reminds the vot- that the books close at mid- ht, March 24. All those who ind to vote May 3 must be en- ed. All those who, having reg- red, have since changed their ce of residence even though it only next door or across the et, MUST RE-REGISTER. is is imperative.

Miss K. Lyons, deputy registrar, Lomita, announces to the voters t she may be found at her e, 2383 252nd street, daily be- e 10 a. m., and every evening er 7 o'clock, except Saturday, ch 19, and Thursday, March 24, en she will be at the postoffice y in Lomita from 7 to 9 p. m. ers who are unable to see her either of these locations may e their names and addresses any place of business in Lomita, e she will pick them up and e on the voters at their own es.